

SPEAKER PROFILE

Susie Mackie

FROM SCREWED UP TO SENSATIONAL The Creation of a New Woman

Susie doesn't just walk the talk, she lives the talk, which is why so many watching sit up and take notice when she speaks. Her commitment to improving lives is an inspiration. People identify with Susie's life experiences as she is prepared to show vulnerability as a strength, which in turn leads to some of the most incredible moments of triumph over adversity.

Over decades, having confronted hardship, abuse and loss, Susie learned to survive then thrive. With her willingness to be open and vulnerable in sharing her story, she shares her belief in the power of individuals to transform and be the best they can be. Delivering a high value, entertaining and visual talk, and speaking from the heart with sincerity and passion, Susie encapsulates 'relentless resilience' and, as a speaker, promotes her message to inspire

SUSIE MACKIE Life!

NEW WOMAN, NEW LIFE, NEW PURPOSE

Susie uses her own adversity to channel her energy into breaking boundaries, and she works hard to enable others to do the same. She shares all, even the difficult parts, and this she does with great humour.

She has found her life's purpose in showing others facing challenges that they are not alone, that there is a future – even when things look bleak. When Susie engages with her audience, they see a real person who listens without judgement. They leave with inspiration, encouragement, and tools to help them take action towards their own positivity and resilience.

A FEW FACTS

Obedience: At home and at school, Susie was brought up to be obedient – a recipe for disaster in her younger adulthood. Now, she is happily and unreservedly liberated.

Mental Toughness Assessor and Mentor partnering with AQR International Ltd, leaders in the field of psychometric assessments which evaluate how we think and respond to our stressors.

Author of 'Women of Spirit' anthologies. Gut wrenching yet heart-warming true stories of triumph over adversity, celebrating the lives of 'everyday' women so that others may know they are not alone and can win through.

Awards: Advocate for Women (by Ladies First Professional Development) for actively inspiring ordinary women to feel empowered and for helping those who have endured to see that there is a light at the end of the tunnel.

Resilience Warrior (by SMBN) for being a role model in rising to challenge and overcoming adversity.

Speaker/presenter for: NatWest Bank, NHS, Blue Ocean Consulting

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

"I am honoured to have shared a stage with Susie and witnessed how she captivates an audience. Simply said, she sprinkles magic dust, hope and belief at exactly the time it's needed!"

Sharron Lowe, Global Speaker, Coach and Author of 'The Mind Makeover'.

"I am so impressed by Susie's professionalism and authenticity. I'm aware that she has faced various major challenges throughout her life and transformed these into strength, wisdom, and compassion. These qualities enable her to inspire others to do the same; she walks the talk and has the tools and experience to help others to master mental toughness, something that is so badly needed in these challenging times."

Peter Milligan www.newgenerationleaders.com

"Susie's tenacity to drive change in lives is exceptional as she seeks to support others via her own experience in life. She is an amazing presenter, very natural, incredibly competent, and always engages others to want to listen and to ask many questions."

Jacqui Gleeson www.gleesonexecutive.com

"Susie is an amazing speaker. Very engaging and thought provoking, but equally very empathetic. Her energy is infectious; she is someone who keeps you on your toes. In one word - a star!"
